Enclosure No.

Sir,

Adverting to your Official Memo No.809 dated 5th December 1901, forwarding Yogramma's petition for disposal, I have the honour to inform you that the Petitioner's son Kuttappan Venkatachar was a cook in the Maharaja's Chatram, and when the Establishment of that Institution was revised (Vide Govt.Pro.No. 716-7/1602 I 51-93 dated 30th December 1899), his services with those of other cooks &c., were dispensed with. The Inte[illegible] Secretary's list contains the names that the would be granted gratuities in proportion to their past service, &c in the Chatram. As required in the Government Proceedings [illegible] has a statement of his service, &c

I will ask for the gratuity to be allowed, as he did not draw it when discharged.

27/5/02 Table to the Dewan

~~Mr. R.K. Lakshmana Rao~~

I have already submitted a Note on this subject to the Dewan.

~~Please place the reference to the Table~~ The Petitioner (Kuttappan Venkatachar) has been recommended for a gratuity for services rendered in the Mysore Chatram. As he is reported to have died, the gratuity, if sanctioned, will be given to his heir

As the post has been abolished the Karnavard cannot be transferred to the Petitioner of the discharged cooks was submitted for the Orders of Government with this Office Rubkari No.1002 dated 4th April 1901, but no reply has yet been received here. The matter does not thus remain with me.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Palace Controller.
